

Episode XXV And They're Off

“On ON!”, shouted the Grand Master and as the initial pack of eager hashmen of the Seletar Hash House Harriers was launched on that fateful day – June 21 1980.

It all began sometime in 1980 on a drunken February evening when James “Winnie the Pooh” Sando, John “Brewer” Chew, Martin “Salami Mabok” Baptist, Ang “Smoothie” Chuan Seng, Avtar Singh, and Paul “Deep Shit” Ang, were entertaining Alex
“The Bear”, Grand Master of the P. J. Hash. Amidst politics, murderous crimes, suicide and sex, the topic of moved on to a seriously uncertain but definite note – the forming of another Hash Chapter in Singapore... *

Well, as they say, the rest is hashtory. Thirteen hundred and sixty five runs later, or for the time-challenged amongst us, twenty-five years hence, we gather amongst friends from all over to commemorate the Silver Anniversary of the Seletar Hash House Harriers – and what a splendid three hundred months it has been.

So, welcome to the hash event of the twenty-first century. Stay with us and enjoy the ride to the Golden Anniversary. On On!
